Winner. Despite the fact that one of the act at the Auditorium was unable to ap-pear on Thursday, the remaining three acts handed out as nice a line of en-tertainment as has been seen here for some time. Madame Mascagni, of The Mascagnis, whitriwing dancers, is suffering from an attack of la grippe, with impending pneumonia, and is under the care of Dr. Donohue, who posiforbid her from considering any thing like work.

Paul Lesso, the wonderful juggler, who is here today, is worth the price of admission alone, as he is without a doubt the best that has ever appeared in this city, bar none. writes on June 6, 1910:

"I have used many 'hair restorers' but have received no apparent benefit until I tried Parisian Sage. My hair is soft and silky, and while before I commenced using the remedy my latir commenced using the remedy my hair was falling fast, was dry and harsh, faded, and altogether unlovely, now just within the past few weeks several have remarked how lovely my hair was. It is also fine just for dressing, leaving the hair soft and ffuffy. It removes dandruff, and cures itching of scalp. I certainly take pleasure in recommending Parisian Sage."

Parisian Sage is sold by The Lee & Osgood Co. and druggists everywhere. Get a 50 cent bottle today, use it for two weeks, and if you are not satisfied that it will do all that it it is advertised to do you can have your money back. The girl with the Auburn latir is on every package.

consulted a doctor who treated me for ringworm. I saw no change and consided a specialist and he chained I had psoriasis. I continued treatments under him for about six months until I saw scales breaking out continued treatment under him for about all over my body save my face. My scalp was affected, and my hair began to fall. I then changed doctors to mo avail. I went to two hospitals and each wanted to make a study of the case and seemed unable to care it or assure me of a cure. I tried several patent medicines and was healty advised by a friend who has used Cuticura on her children since their birth, to purchase the Cuticura Remedies. I purchased a cake of soap, the Ointhnost and the Resolvent. After the first application, the iteling was allayed. I am still using the Soap and now feel that none other is good enough for my sain. The psoriasis has disappeared and I everywhere feel better. My hands were so disfigured before using the Cuticura Remedies that I had to wear gloves all the time. Now my body and hards are locking me." (Signed) Miss Sara Burnett, 2135 Firswater St. Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 20, 1910.

THE TYPHOID GERM.

Oh, skip away, hop away, bad little The grand jury's after you, 'twill make The grand jury's after you, 'twill make you squirm;
Maybe indict you and put you on trial For unlawful entry in illegal style Within people's systems, and so spoil your sport
As you would foregather in pair or cohort,
And give you up over to science's bars, Where Johns Hopkins puts you in corked-up glass jars.

Oh, sad little, bad little germ, you go back,
For the health office sleuths are now out on your track;
And the water we drink of which holds your chief joys
You'll be boiled out of, till each one's home it destroys,
Deodorized, sterilized, sized up and such. Till every man jack germ is sore to the And out of the system that's human With a skip and a jump which will land you kerflop!

So run away, stay away, mean little rally located, continuous hot water, steam heat, bath and gas. 38 Union St. We've had quite enough of you for this There once was a time when you knew you were it.
But now we've got science to hand you a fit.

A strong, big policeman, with club in his hand.

To beat down disease if it will take a stand.

With you and your doings he will not make terms.

So run to the folks who like bad little germs.

germs. -Baltimore American WILL AND BESS.

My grandpa is the greatest man in all the world. I bet,
And all his hair has turned as white as it can ever get;
But one day when they didn't know that I was there, I guess,
My grandma called my grandpa Will and he called grandma Bess.

My grandpa's kind of tall, and once he held me on his knee.

And said I was the kind of boy my father used to be:

And then he laughed and grandma cried.

—I don't know why she should, Because my father hasn't died, and his health's awful good.

My grandpa's very old and seems to know most everything.

And people bow to him so low you'd think he was a king;
But something funny happened once; I think about it still—

My grandpa called my grandma Boss and she called grandpa Will.
